

SCHOOL BUILDINGS DEFERRED FOR AWHILE

ISSUE IF SOLD INSUFFICIENT FOR WORK.

For Forty Thousand Dollars Are Received From Several Sources, But None Accepted—General Tractors Assigned and Subsequent Matters.

Members of the Carbon county board were present last Tuesday at the regular meeting, when the action of the construction of two new school buildings—one at Castle Gate and the other at Castle Gate—was deferred for the present because of the high cost of materials and the lack of funds, which the board does not expect to have until the first of July.

On the first of July the postoffice at Helper is to be moved from its present location to the north room of the Helper Hotel building. Decision of the postoffice department to move the office from its present location will leave Postmaster Young with an empty building on his hands, as his lease does not expire for some time yet, but the present quarters were found to be too small to handle the large volume of mail, hence the move.

Acting Agent Greener of the Denver and Rio Grande tells The Sun that there is a freight train out of Price that carries passengers as far east as Green River. It is No. 98 and leaves Price in the forenoon every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The service is largely for the convenience of stockmen who have their herds in the desert as well as residents at "section hand stations" along the way.

Mrs. R. A. Gidding, 32 years of age, died at Wellington last Monday from complications following childbirth. She was one of the earliest residents of that town. Besides a husband she leaves five children. Funeral services were held from the ward meeting house on Monday last, the speakers being Elder John Potter and O. J. Harmon of Price and W. N. Draper of Wellington and Bishop Branch of Wellington ward. The remains rest in Wellington cemetery beside those of relatives. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. H. M. V. Gould of Price.

Up to date around sixty-five volunteers have enlisted through the Price recruiting office for service with Uncle Sam. Most of them are residents of Price and the remainder are from the country south, the Utahs, Idaho and elsewhere. The coal camps and other settlements, it is thought, will increase the number to a hundred. Those latter have gone in at Salt Lake City and elsewhere. With the two thousand and fifty in selective draft and the hundred volunteers, surely Carbon county has done its "bit," aside from big liberty bond purchases and Red Cross donations.

A. L. McKinley was arrested during the week for burglary of a box in the yards at Helper and taking away with him several guests of whisky, consigned from Harry Goss at Price to the Kentucky Liquor House at Kureka. He is now in the county jail with a good chance of getting back to the penitentiary, where he but recently completed a term for burglarizing the Price Co-Op. McKinley was run out of town a few days ago by Marshal Bryner after serving several days for drunkenness. He is an old offender and never so happy, evidently, as when behind the bars.

At its annual meeting one day last week, Mrs. J. B. Middleton was chosen president of Price Bazaar for the ensuing year, with Mrs. J. E. MacKnight its vice president. Mrs. A. M. Edger, secretary, Miss Mabel Middleton, treasurer, and Mrs. H. W. Cooper, corresponding secretary. Mrs. J. B. Sharp was chosen re-elected chairwoman of the civic department. Mrs. F. J. Thomas, secretary, and Mrs. C. H. Ackerman, treasurer. The Day View club, on new membership will be closed on next fall. The report of the civic department shows two hundred and ten dollars collected from merchants and used in renting and conducting the ladies' rest room for visiting women during the year and $294.88 raised by other means and used for civic work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dills of Clear Lake went through adoption papers in district court this week. Pans Kangan, a lad left as an orphan.

More freight is going out over the line to Myton road at this time for the Utah basin country than for any year at this season. Merchandise loaded at Price indicates great prosperity.

Mrs. H. W. Cooper, who has been confined from eye troubles for several weeks, is now able to leave her home to which she was kept for some time in darkness as a part of the treatment of her physician.

The Camille girls met at the home of Miss Melva and Marie Harmon on North Ninth street Tuesday evening in regular session. Mrs. L. Edwards was chosen guardian in place of Mrs. H. C. Green, resigned.

Engine F. Clinton has purchased an interest in his partner, Pierre Williams, in the Farmers' and Stockmen's store, the change having taken place last week. It is understood the latter is to give all his attention to his flock.

T. E. McMillan of The Sun yesterday closed a deal for the purchase of the Robert Howard residence property on K street between Seventh and Ninth. Consideration, $2500. Robert McMillan recently sold his dwelling on North Seventh street to Moynihan, the sheepman, for $4000.

SOCIETY

The members of the tabernacle choir gave a delightful social and miscellaneous shower on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Prows and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bryner, all new brides. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Among the lovely young girls who are returning for the summer is Miss Grace Cowie, the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cowie. Miss Cowie has been spending the past year in New York where, in the school of dancing and expression of the Delectable system, she has won many honors. She was one of the solo dancers at a wonderful charity entertainment given by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont recently.—Goodwill's Weekly, 15th.

On July 4th, next, Miss Barbara Forrester of Price will become the bride of Leo J. Kinney of Mohrland. The bride to be is the daughter of the late William Forrester and has until lately been deputy recorder of Carbon county under her mother, while the groom to be is chief clerk for the United States Fuel company at Mohrland and held in high esteem by very many friends and business associates locally as well as the corporation officials under whom he works. They are to make their home at Mohrland.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Hilja Kangan of Helper and Rev. Archibald William Bidders of Fairbault, Minn., took place in the railroad chapel Tuesday at 11 o'clock of the forenoon. Rev. Father A. B. Glavin officiating. The bride was attired in a gown of ivory georgette crepe and embezzled net. A silk veil enveloped the gown. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds and sweetpeas.

Miss Elizabeth Kangan of Kemmerer, Wyo., a sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and Miss Lenora Warren and Florence Good as bridesmaids. They wore pink gowns and white hats. Glenora Hallinger acted as the bridegroom's best man, and Messrs. Huggert and James Pland as ushers. The bride was given away by William R. Avery, her guardian.

The guests were received at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Avery, which was beautifully decorated with bridal wreaths and flowers. A wedding breakfast was served, the tables having centerpieces of white carnations, sweetpeas and bridal wreaths. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the family were present.

The young couple will soon go to Watousha, Minn., where Rev. Bidders is pastor of the church. The Episcopal church on July 5th.

Attorney Claude F. Baker of Helper was here Tuesday on matters before the district court. He recently volunteered at Salt Lake City for the Utah national guard and his leave of absence expires July 25. However, he hopes to have this extended to such a time as will give him an opportunity to wind up his law practice before he goes.

Baker is made of the stuff that will make him heard from in the army. Very many friends throughout this section of the state will regret to see him leave, but extend their good wishes to him in his going. He has built up a splendid practice since locating at Helper.

THINK IT OVER

The value of being well dressed is emphasized by the number of successful men whose good dressing has contributed to their success.

And this element in success can be yours at a profit—because tailor-made clothes really represent more for less money.

Wear, satisfaction and good appearance are to be considered.

June 23d to 30th, next, as recruiting week for the regular army and call upon unmarried men between the ages of 18 and 40 years who have no dependents and who are not engaged in pursuits vitally necessary to the prosecution of the war, to present themselves for enlistment during the week herein designated, to the number of seventy thousand.

The president's action was taken at the request of army officials who have been seriously concerned over the slow rate of recruiting for the regular army.

Gov. Simon Hamburger, under an old Utah statute, is also calling for volunteers for the national guard in preference to drafting the young men of the state. Personal letters are going out to all eligibles.

DISTRICT COURT ADJOURNS
Brief Session of Three Days Held At Price This Week.

District Judge George Christensen convened court at Price last Monday, devoting the three days of the session to a setting of the calendar and the hearing of numerous applications for citizenship, after which an adjournment was taken to next Monday, June 25th, when the jury men are to report.

The criminal calendar is unusually light this term for Carbon county. The main case to be heard is that of Mrs. Rosie Van der Schuit, charged with the slaying of H. Van der Schuit, a local business man at the time of his taking off. There are two other cases of minor importance.

With the civil calendar in sight the court figures to be in session until well along to July. An adjournment was taken Wednesday. Judge Christensen and F. M. Alder, reporter, are spending the time at their homes in Bannock county.

L. A. McInnis will assist District Attorney Patterson in the Van der Schuit prosecution.

The Denver and Rio Grande has settled for two deaths in the wreck of the Sunnyside train at Price in December last. William Wallace's heirs got $10,000, and Tony Verde's family $12,400. The former lived at Cameron and the latter at Sunnyside.
